

How do tuition payments work?

The tuition amount is for the entire year. Tuition is broken out over the entire school year as a convenience to you, but may be paid in one lump sum at the beginning of the year if you so desire. Please keep in mind that you are not paying tuition based on the number of weeks you meet in any given month, you are instead paying an annual tuition rate broken down into monthly installments to keep the price more manageable for most families.