

What is your policy on visitors?

Parents are always welcome visitors and if you are having out of town company, or watching someone else's children for the day, they are welcome to attend as well. We also allow for children who may be considering enrolling in the Master's Academy to attend for a day. We only ask that you and your children not make bringing visitors a weekly event and that you contact the director to get permission before bringing any visitors to the school.